AMUSEMENT NOTES

Fine Company in "Deep Purple."

At the opera house last night the well-known Nellie Gill Players presented "The Deep Purple" in a manner that stamps every member of the company as an artist. The applause was spontaneous and enthusiastic and well deserved. The play deals with a little-known-about form of crime, the badger game, and the police investigations, which this play was the means of instigating, resulted in the most widespread reform wave the world has ever experienced—the exposure and suppression of the white slave traffic. This play will be presented again to-night.

To-morrow night the same players will present Eugene Walters' famous "Paid in Full." The part of Emma Brooks in this great drama is one of the best things Miss Gill has ever done, and Barre players who saw her in a tabloid version of the play a year ago will welcome this opportunity of seeing her in the complete play.

"Baby Mine" will be presented Friday and Saturday nights, with a special New Year's matinee of "Thou Shalt Not."—adv.

Pavilion Theatre.
The Harrison-Du Frayne Players

opened a week's engagement at the Pavilion Theatre last night with "The Chorus Girl." The theatre was filled for the evening performance and the large audiences were complimentary in their criticism of the production. It may truthfully be said that the company is one of the strongest that has ever taken the road, and that is saying a great deal. The vaudeville specialties are also far superior to those of other companies and elicited words of commendation from the audiences.

Miss Gladys Moffatt, the leading lady, had the part of Anna. She was easy and graceful in movement, distinct in articulation and clever in facial expression, expressing her feelings distinctly by gesture and change of countenance. She was exceptionally good in her scenes with George Fane, the captain lover, who won her hand, and her parting from him when she realized that parting had to be. In the apartment of Hawkins, left the intended impression of a mind-tortured woman, although the scene was without spoken words. To carry through such a scene is a test for any actress. The rest of the members of the company were very good in their parts.

To-night the company will be seen in "The Boss."—adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Miss Hortense Knight of Hill street left to-day for a short visit with friends in Boston.

H. F. Cutler & Son are unloading a carload of 1916 Overlands at the Central Vermont depot to-day.

Miss Annie Watkins of Concord, N. H., is the guest for a few days of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Watkins of Summer street.

William Gray of Montreal is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Gray of South Main street.

John Scott, who has been spending the holidays with friends on Smith place, returned to his home in Waterbury last night.

Perry Oliver, who was employed in the People's Shoe store during the holiday rush, has returned to his home in Williamstown.

New Year's dance at Holden hall, Middlesex, Friday evening, Dec. 31. Good music. Refreshments. Full bill, 75c. Everybody invited.—adv.

There are hundreds of ways in which our Christmas Club accounts may be used. Try it yourself this year; join to-day. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Albert A. Marr, who has been spending the holidays at his home in this city, returned to-day to St. Albans, Me., where he has a store with Edward Jackson.

Aden Downing returned yesterday to his home in Hardwick, after having been summoned to Barre to attend the funeral of his brother, Almon C. Downing.

Remember that the balance of stock and fixtures of the Paris Shirtwaist House are to be closed out Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, Currier block. Don't miss the opportunity. D. A. Perry, auctioneer.

Friday afternoon, Dec. 31, at 1 o'clock, the new Berlin schoolhouse on the Barre-Montpelier road will be dedicated. There will be addresses and other exercises and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Manager C. F. Miller of the Consolidated Lighting company returned to the city last evening, after passing a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miller in Boston, and in New York City on business.

James T. Kenefick of Washington street went yesterday to St. Johnsbury, where he will remain for a few days. On his return he will be accompanied by Mrs. Kenefick, who has been making a stay of several days with her brother, John Scott.

Frank Zamperini, who was arrested on Granite street by Officer David Henderson just before midnight, came into city court this morning, but refused for a time to make any plea when charged with an intoxication offense. Finally acknowledging the offense, he decided to accept an alternative jail sentence of 10 days instead of paying the minimum fine and costs.

A party of people who would a-sleighing go encountered drifts of a proportion so great that a projected trip to Plainfield Sunday night was abandoned a few miles outside the city limits.

High wind had made the roads practically impassable, although a second sleighing party, having chosen a different road to Plainfield, were able to reach their destination only after four hours of rough going.

Among the visitors registered at Hotel Barre are: James W. Hall of Boston, a former resident of Barre, who is spending a few days in the city on business; George P. Coffin of Freeport, Me., and G. W. Weed of East Lee, Mass., who are here to judge the exhibits at the state poultry show.

T. J. Priddy and R. J. Adair of Burlington, William J. Thompson of Boston, John Bernel of New York City, C. M. Laurie of Williamstown.

Everett Swasey, a former resident of Barre, who was graduated from the University of Vermont in Burlington last June, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. Swasey has been passing a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Swasey, in Waterbury, and returns this evening to Belle Isle, near Montreal, P. Q., where he is employed as a chemist in a powder plant.

Mr. Swasey is one of hundreds of young American chemists who have found employment in Canadian munitions plants since the European war urged upon Great Britain the necessity for developing the munitions industry in Canada.

One lot of Mole skins. These are the best 16c cloth on the market. This lot we will cut at 12½c per yard.

Table Damask

This Damask Sale is one at which careful buying housewives buy their year's supply of Table Linen. You all know what the war has done to the growing of Flax. You have some idea as to how much all kinds of Linen has advanced. In the face of all this, we are here giving you one of the best Linen Sales for years. Could not do this on new purchases. All of these goods were in our stock when prices were lower than they are to-day.

One lot of 50c Mercerized Damask in basement at 30c per yard.

One lot of All Pure Linen 64-inch Bleached Damask. Our 65c Damask, this sale 40c.

One lot of 66-inch All Pure Linen Scotch Damask—our 87c value—this sale at 72½c per yard (nearly as good as $1.00 Damask).

All of our 72-inch $1.00 Damask now in this sale at 87c per yard. Napkins to match at sale prices.

Here is the best Damask trade that we have ever put onto our counters—72 inches wide, Irish manufacture, very heavy; comes in different patterns with Napkins to match a part of the patterns. Market value of this Damask to-day is $1.50. We have been making a special of it at $1.25. Now in this sale at 98c per yard. This is the greatest 98c Damask value in Vermont to-day.

Every piece of Damask and every Table Cloth in our stock to-day at a liberal discount.

Napkins

Any dozen of Napkins in our stock at sale prices. The following at advertised prices:

One lot of very heavy All Pure Linen Napkins. These in this sale at $1.19 per dozen (would not be overpriced at $1.50).
